This is an exciting opportunity to join our committed team of Science Technicians. You will be an integral part of the Science Faculty and provide valuable support to the teaching staff. The role will mainly involve working across the Biology and Chemistry departments. The ideal candidate will have a background and keen interest in Science. Experience of working as a Science Technician would be advantageous but not essential. Strong communication and organisational skills are key to this role.

Parmiter's is an exceptional school with highly positive and supportive relationships between the staff and students. Extra-curricular activities are varied and exciting. Parmiter's is part of the Herts and Bucks Teaching School Alliance and offers a robust induction programme complimented by a bespoke CPD programme supporting colleagues at all stages of their careers. We are able to support the completion of further qualifications for appropriate candidates. Our admissions policy prioritises children of staff.

Application forms, available from the school website, should be returned with a covering letter to the Headmaster, Mr M Jones, Parmiter's School, High Elms Lane, Garston, Nr Watford, Herts WD25 0UU or by email to the address below.
