

Sarah Kelly

Sarah was appointed as a Governor in 2023, bringing with her ten years of experience from the Governing Board of a local infant school. She has a PhD in animal behaviour from Bath University, and worked for Accenture as a management consultant. She is now self-employed and works as a communication consultant, writer and private tutor. One of her three children left Parmiters in 2023 and is now at University, another is currently in the Sixth Form.