

Richard Booth

Richard's academic background is in Natural Sciences with a PhD in Chemistry. He has subsequently worked in the health and life sciences sector covering sales, strategy development and programme delivery in companies, research organisations and the NHS.

As an Old Parmiterian and governor since February 2020, Richard is enjoying the opportunity to give back to the school and support Parmiter's as a member of the Standards and Curriculum committee.