

James Partridge

James has been a governor since February 2021. He studied Law at the University of East Anglia after leaving Parmiter's and is currently a Barrister, practising in criminal law.

James is a member of the Finance & Resources committee.