

Ben Pilgrim

Ben studied Chemistry at Oxford and Cambridge after leaving Parmiter's and is currently a Research Fellow at Nottingham University. Ben's academic knowledge and experience of higher education and recruitment to education are valuable in informing the Academy Governance in these areas.

Ben has been a governor since February 2021 and is a current member of the Standards and Curriculum committee.