

Life Skills

At Key Stage 3 and 4, students study a variety of topics related to Health and Wellbeing, Living in the Wider World and Relationships.

Throughout, outside speakers are arranged to give students as broad an understanding as possible of the subject. The course is not examined and this allows the flexibility to follow interests and respond to current affairs.