D&T	An extensive revision programme will take place in lessons from 23rd March until stand down. D&T staff will be available for individual support during D&T lesson time after stand down, by prior arrangement. Lunchtimes and after school sessions (which have run since September) have now finished as the NEA task has been completed.
DRAMA	Students will be invited to written revision sessions which will take place at lunchtime. Students will also be expected to commit to extra-curricular rehearsal in preparation for the practical parts of the course - these will take place during school hours.
ECONOMICS	Open revision sessions on Monday and Tuesday lunchtimes from 1.45pm with Mr Kennedy in P6. The focus will be on examination technique. All students can choose to attend on one of these days.
ENGLISH	Two revision groups will run on Wednesday lunchtimes (1.45pm) . The group in E5 will be by invite only; the group in E4 will be open to all interested students, on a first come, first served basis. A schedule of the topic/text to be covered will be made available to students in advance. In lessons, there is a focus on revising a different element of the course each fortnight, with examination practice embedded.
FOOD TECHNOLOGY	An extensive revision programme will take place in lessons from 16th March until stand down. D&T/Food staff will be available for individual support during lesson time after stand down, by prior arrangement.

GENERAL	Miss Lincoln (Deputy Head of Year 11) will be supervising Year 11s in H4 on Monday lunchtimes (1.40pm) . It's open to all Year 11s, subject to good behaviour, and the room is to be used for quiet revision. Due to limited space, students not revising (playing with phones, chatting, etc.) will be asked to leave. Food should not be brought to this session.

Unfortunately, it is not possible to create a schedule where there are no clashes between subjects. Students need to prioritise and organise themselves to attend the relevant sessions.
