Your child has expressed an interest in taking part in a Model United Nations conference, which will take place at Highgate School on Saturday 10 October, from 9.00am to 5.30pm. The conference requires students to research, debate and compose resolutions to resolve a range of global issues, while acting as delegates of mock committees of the United Nations.

There is a strict smart dress code for the conference, but NOT school uniform. A hot lunch will be provided on the day.
